

Home > Business > Kenya's textile industry: Summit highlights key opportunities and challenges for the sector

Kenya's Textile Industry: Summit Highlights Key Opportunities And Challenges For The Sector

By Newsroom — On Dec 3, 2023

Business

Dr. Juma Mukwana, the PS, State Department for Industry in the Ministry of Industry Trade and Investments.

Major players in the textile and apparel industry drawn India, Middle East and Africa last week converged in Nairobi, for the ITME Africa & Middle East 2023 summit and expo.

The event, which came to a close in December 2, 2023, had been organized by the India ITME Society, a non-profit industry body formed in 1980 to serve as a catalyst for technological excellence and currently recognized as the backbone of textile engineering industry in India.

Being held at the Kenyatta International Convention Centre \(KICC\) in Nairobi, ITME Africa & Middle East 2023 targets the textile technology and engineering sector players. The event connected the global business leaders with their counterparts from to Kenya and Africa.

<https://www.financialfortunemedia.com/kenyas-textile-industry-summit-highlights-key-opportunities-and-challenges-for-the-sector/>